00109462

O
741.5
Sca/Ato
109462

THE ASIATIC SOCIETY OF BOMBAY
Town Hall, Bombay.

Digitized with financial assistance from
Observer Research Foundation
on 22 February, 2019

A to Z

BEING

TWENTY-SIX NOTES

ON A

SOLDIER'S TRUMPET.

103462
ac

ROYAL ASIATIC SOCIETY • LIBRARY OF THE BOMBAY BRANCH OF THE

B 1686

FB. b. 29

BY

SURGEON MAJOR F. E. SCANLAN.

LONDON:

HOUGHTON & GUNN, 162, New Bond Street. | HATCHARDS, 187, Piccadilly.

1876.

O 741.5
Sca/ Ato
109462

A to Z

being 26 Notes on a Soldier's Trumpet

Founded by F. L. Lawson Major.

LONDON, 1875.
HOUGHTON & GUNN, 162, New Bond Street,
HATCHARDS. 187, Piccadilly.

A was an Adjutant
"Ride a Cock Horse."

B was a Brigadier,
"crusty" and cross.

00109462

C a Controller
laden with gold.

D was a Drummer Boy,
youthful yet bold.

E was an Engineer
spying the land.

F a Field Marshall,
Baton in hand.

G was a Guardsman,
lengthy and slim.

H a Hussar surnamed "Cherubim".

I an Instructor,
who taught us to shoot.

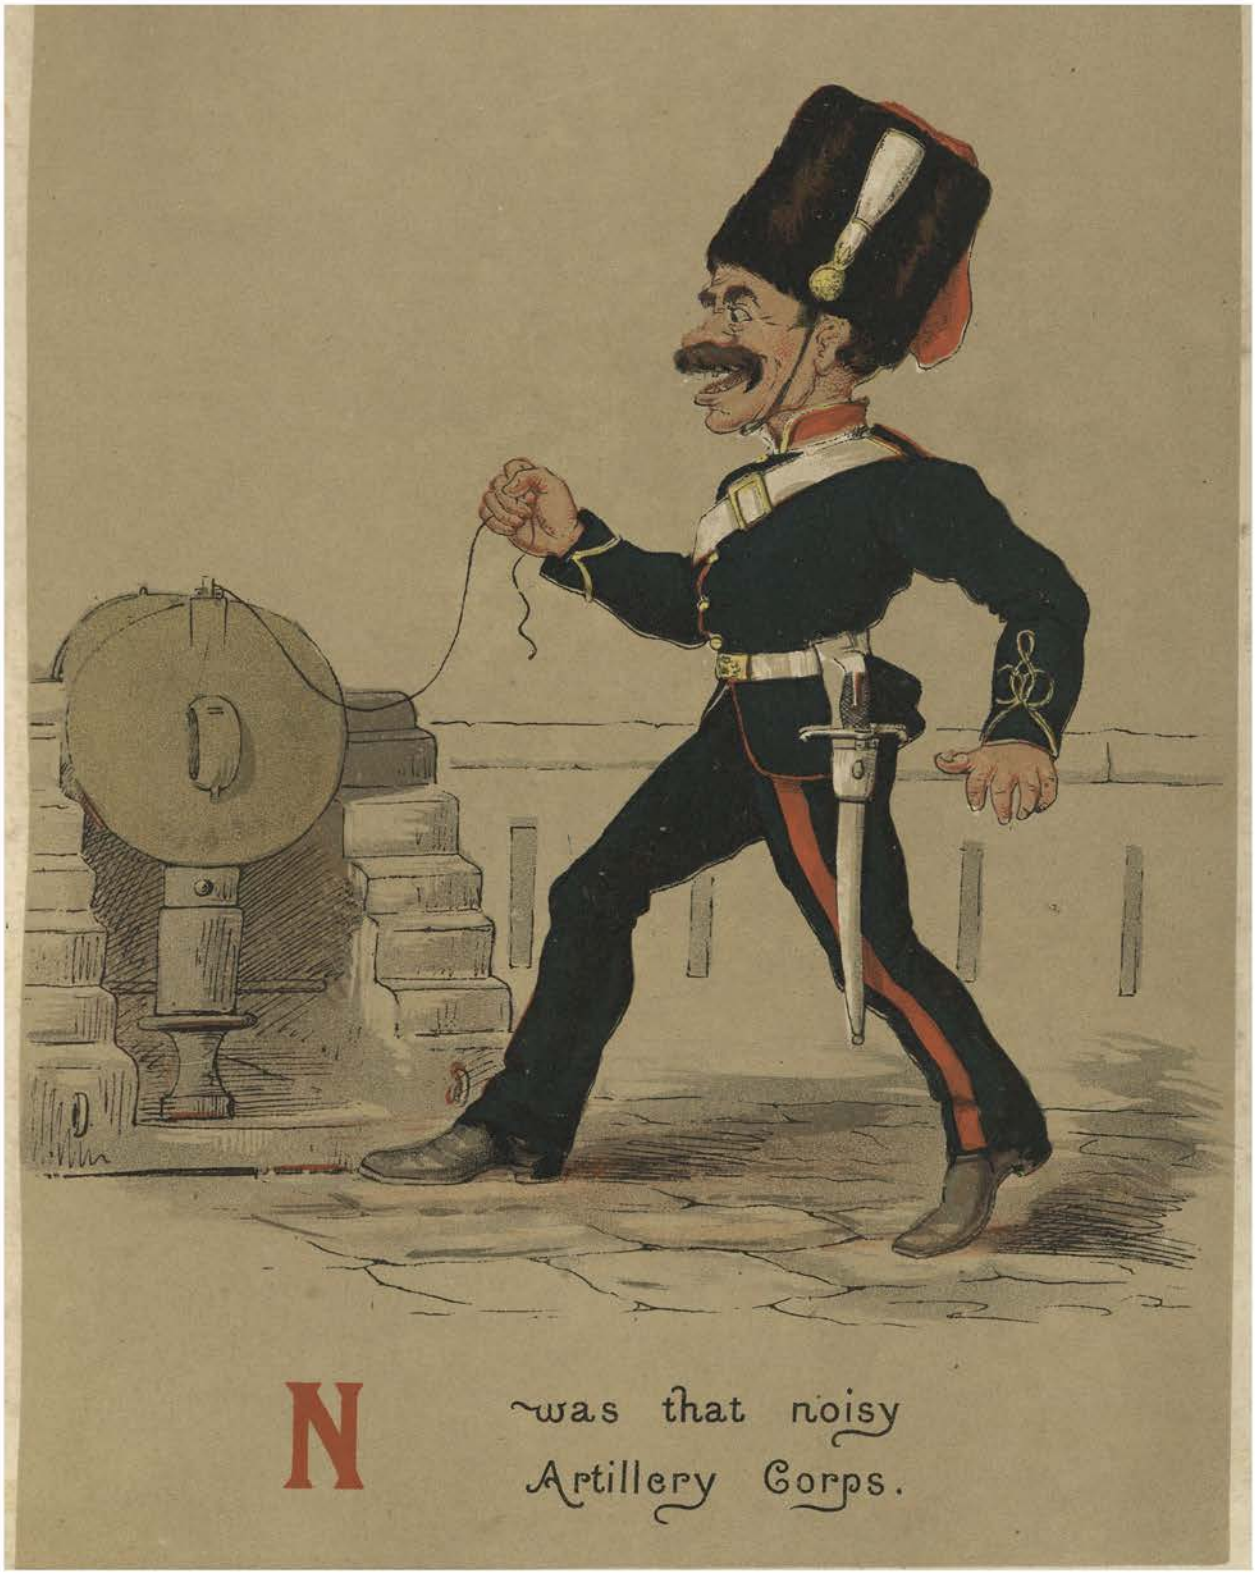
J was a jolly
though simple Recruit.

K was a Knapsack,
the Defaulter abhors.

L was a Lancer,
"Aut Gloria Mors."

M

Mounted Rifles,
alas, now no more!



N was that noisy Artillery Corps.

O was an Old Soldier,
"bad with the pains"

P the Provost,
where they work them in chains.

Q was a queer "Sub-Lieutenant"
with glasses.

R a Royal "Plunger," who ogled the lasses.

109462

S was a Surgeon,
they called him a "Pill."

T ~was a "Tippler," uncommonly ill.

U was the Union Jack,
long may it wave.

V

the VICTORIA CROSS,
earned by the brave.

W for Wooden legs,
Wars, and Waterloo.

X the extension
that youth must go through.

Y was a Yeoman,
He'd fight with the best.

Z was a Zouave,
they're called "Second West."

00109462

Digitized with financial assistance from Observer Research Foundation
on 22 February, 2019